DESCRIPTION

The Cooperstown area is so rich in history, natural beauty, culture and architecture that a visit is not complete without a professional guided tour.

Paul Kuhn captivates his audiences with magical tales of the people, events and circumstances behind the founding of this fascinating frontier region. Visitors will discover the beautiful architecture, historic structures, landmarks and area attractions.

Kuhn offers Walking Tours in the quaint village of Cooperstown and Step-On guide service for motor coaches in the lake region James Fenimore Cooper called "Glimmerglass".

DIRECTIONS

The Guide will meet the group or motor coach at a number of convenient locations within the village of Cooperstown, depending on itinerary and customer preference.
