DESCRIPTION

Hyde Hall is a nonprofit National Historic Landmark and New York State Historic Site. This unique site allows visitors to experience life of five generations who have lived in this stunning 50 room stone mansion. Hyde Hall is a true restoration in progress, using many original techniques to maintain its' historical integrity. The site overlooks beautiful Otsego Lake "Glimmerglass", of James Fenimore Cooper's writings and affords a spectacular 8-mile view down the lake to Cooperstown. The grounds are perfect for a picnic lunch.
